

How to get to BRE Wales & South West

Driving directions:

- Take M4 to junction 42, exit to Swansea onto A483, Fabian Way
- Continue along Fabian Way approximately 4 miles, passing the Village Hotel on the left, to the traffic lights at the junction with Port Tenant Road
- Turn left onto Port Tenant Road
- Take the exit to the right (2nd exit) at the roundabout onto Langdon Road
- Bear right where Langdon Road meets Kings Road
- The Ethos building is on the left hand side after approx. 100 yards. Pay and display car parking is available on the left after the building. Alternative car parks are available off Langdon Road.

Please note: There is no left turn from Fabian Way into Kings Road

Local Driving directions

(if staying within Swansea and approaching from the West)
There is no right turn from Quay Parade into Kings Road. Hence if driving from the West, fork left at Sainsbury's and continue over to the most Northerly of the river bridges on the A483, cross the river, turn right again then approach Kings road from the North

Arriving by Train:

Swansea is on the main line from London Paddington with frequent trains between London, Cardiff and other local locations.

Taxis are available from a stand outside the station. Ethos is a five minute taxi ride (approx) from Swansea station.

There are many possible routes to walk from the train station to Ethos. However, the most straightforward route, taking approximately 20 minutes, is to leave the train station onto High Street, carry straight on, passing the remains of the Castle on the left through to Wind Street where there are many pubs and restaurants. Cross the road at the end of Wind Street next to Frankie and Benny's restaurant into Somerset Place. Continue along Somerset Place, walk past the car park at the edge of the marina and cross the pedestrian bridge over the river. Cross the paved square in front of the Ice House Café and gallery then turn left, following the road past the Technium building and on to the Ethos building, also on the left.

Arriving by bus:

Many busses entering and leaving Swansea to the East pass close to Swansea Waterfront. Several stop within, or close to the Waterfront, including many of the Greyhound services from Cardiff. The bus station is a 15 minute walk from Ethos (approx.)
